

Mr. Julian Morris
Biography

Julian is a fellow of the Institute of Economic Affairs in London, where he researches and commissions studies on technology, trade, environment and international law. In 2000 Mr Morris edited a book titled, 'Rethinking Risk and the Precautionary Principle', which has led to him appearing as an expert witness and guest speaker on this issue throughout the world.